Open the application

1. After finish installation, look for this application on your phone

2. Press it to open the application and it will launch the program.
3. When the apps open it will direct you to the login screen below

* Existing User

If you are existing user from the old booking system, you can use the existing login id and password, without sign up for new login id.

New User - Sign up a new login account

1. For first time users, click 'Sign Up' to create new login accounts.

The login screen displays the 'QiSoft' logo in green and black. Below the logo are two input fields: 'Login ID' and 'Password'. At the bottom, there is a green 'Login' button, a blue 'Forget Password' link, and a blue 'Sign Up' link.

2. After press 'Sign Up', it will direct to create account screen, fill in the account info and calculate the math question and press 'Register'

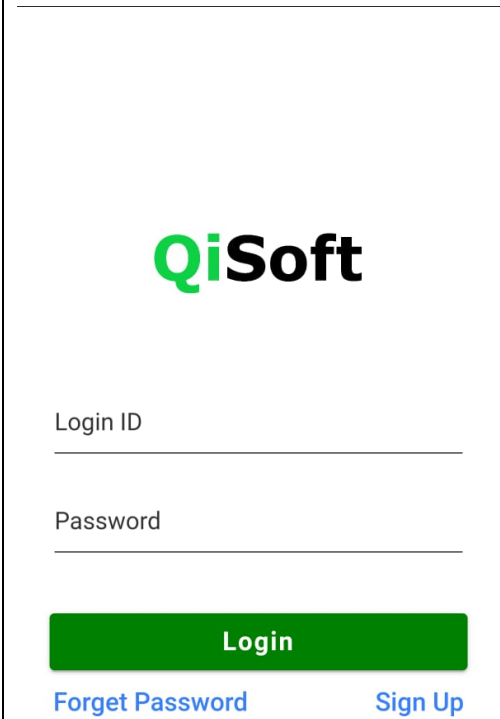

The sign-up screen has a back arrow and 'Sign Up' header. It contains several input fields: 'Login ID *', 'Name *', 'Password', 'Confirm Password', 'Tel No * (mobile)', and 'Email (Important use to recover passw)'. Below these is a math problem: 'Please calculate and key in the answer below and submit to continue' followed by a math diagram showing a calculation $28 \div 9 = ?$ and a refresh icon. At the bottom is an 'Answer *' field and a green 'Register' button.
